

POSTDOC PUB TOURS - EVERY OTHER WEDNESDAY NIGHT

To all our Fellow Postdocs,

Yes, we mean all Postdocs at HMS Institutions, that is, Brigham and Women's Hospital, Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Harvard School of Public Health, Beth Israel, Children's Hospital, Massachusetts General Hospital, the Harvard Medical School Quad, Harvard Institute of Medicine and also colleagues and friends of Postdocs. You're all invited to join the PDA-PPT, the biweekly postdoc association postdoc pub tour. This is the occasion to meet all these colleagues who work in the lab next door or across town that you would never get to see otherwise but who might share a lot of scientific and non-scientific interests with you.

And to help you spot the right crowd, we have our Harvard raccoon mascot guarding one of the tables, waving a PDA-PPT flag. It's not huge - it can be accommodated in an HMS mug!

LOCATIONS: The PPT takes place at one of the following pubs – watch for announcements or contact us!

Flann O'Brien's - the Irish Pub at 1619 Tremont Street just off Brigham Circle www.flanns.com
The Squealing Pig – the Irish Pub at 134 Smith Street, just off Huntington Ave, across from HSPH

We hope to see lots of you every other Wednesday!

Katja, Juliet, Pablo

Juliet: jmoncaster@rics.bwh.harvard.edu

Katja: katja_schmitz@hms.harvard.edu

Pablo: pablo_cironi@hms.harvard.edu